READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of Practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Southern Presbyterians.

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, composed of 210 commissioners from all parts of the Southern States, convented at the First Presbyterian Church in Greensville, S. C. yesterday. The retiring moderator Rev. J. T. Plunkett, of Augusta, Ga., delivered the annual sermon.

Dr. Plunkett took as his text "Pilate saith unto Him, What is truth? (John xviii, 38). He said, in part:

"The attitude of our age toward the Bible is a vital question. What are the signs of the times? What are men saying about the book? As we interpret the spirit of our age, what conclusion do we reach? Ours is an age of unrest. Higher criticism, new theology, new psychology, German philosophy, French speculation, scientific investigation are terms we are all familiar with. The meaning of it is that rationalism is rampant and that our age on its spiritual side is an age of double.

"I recognize that criticism is legitimate and necessary I confess I am troubled at the spirit of that class of critics which comprehensively we call the destructive school.

"What is the effect of this criticism upon the authority of our Lord? He knew the Scripture of the Old Testament. He had learned them at his mother's knee and in the rabbinical schools. His memory was saturated with them. Christ's indorsement of the Old Testament Scripture was emphatic, without, hesitation, exception or reservation. There is no escape from the issue. If modern criticism is true, Christ was the greatest false teacher and deceiver. If Christ taught God's truth, then this criticism is false. For myself, I had rather stand for Christ against the critics then with the critics against Christ.

"What is the effect of such criticism upon the people? It is agreed that our age is becoming more and more materialistic. Its not the cry going up everywhere throughout the church, 'Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation?'

"I am not for those who believe the ark of God will be taken; but I do very sadly fear the destroying influence of this critical spirit upon the ministry and upon the people. I shall not presume to forecast the action of this assembly upon any question; but I do pray the Holy Ghost may deeply impress every one with the paramount importance of the things I have been saying, and today by the altars of our ancestral faith we will renew our vows of subscription to the gospel of our forefathers, in every book and chapter and sentence and word, the inspired oracles of God, 'the pillar and fount of truth.'"

A Sad Scene.

At the end of a weary two-mile walk, Rose Goldberg, eight years old, laid her two-year-old brother down at the County Hospital in Chicago yesterday and asked in broken English that he be admitted for treatment. The clerk looked at the baby face and then at the girl in wonder. The infant was dead.

Rose is the daughter of Joseph Goldberg, a shoemaker, who came from Russia three months ago. The girl has been the only nurse for two younger children. Yorke, the baby, was taken with measles and whooping cough, and neighbors at length prevailed upon the family to have it taken to the hospital.

With the few English words at her command, Rose inquired the way to the county institution. As she plodded on with her heavy burden, the baby's complaints became less and less, and at last ceased altogether, but the little girl felt no fear.

It required considerable explanation to persuade the girl that the baby was past medical aid and could not be received. Then she quietly lifted the body and started for the door, intending to return with it in her arms to her father's house. The hospital authorities, with difficulty, convinced her this would not do, and that the body must be taken to the county morgue.

Rose would not relinquish her burden to other arms even then. Weeping, she carried the child to the morgue, in the south part of the group of buildings.

Fatal Fight in a Canoe.

W. A. Thompson and Isador Bouchard, employed on the line of the Trans-Continental Railway, are dead in Helen Lake, on the north shore of Lake Superior, and their deaths were without exception the most tragic that ever occurred in that district.

While in a canoe half a mile from shore the men engaged in combat, and the craft was capsized. They climbed to the top of the upturned canoe and continued a hand-to-hand struggle which lasted nearly thirty minutes, when they sank from exhaustion and were drowned.

Some weeks ago Thompson and Bouchard became involved in a quarrel over a girl. Lately they called on the young woman at the same time. Soon after they put off in a canoe, ostensibly to rejoin a surveying party, and soon afterward they were seen astride their overturned canoe fighting with all the strength they possessed.

A fisherman and another man, half a mile away, were the only ones to witness the death struggle. Bouchard was the first to go down. A minute later Thompson toppled from the canoe and disappeared from view.

To Pray for Editors.

Ministers were exhorted to take a lesson from the modern newspaper by Bishop Samuel Fallows, in a sermon delivered at the evening session of the general council of the Reformed Episcopal Church, in Philadelphia yesterday. The bishop said that the press in some respects had superseded the pulpit, and now exercises many of the functions which the pulpit has lost.

The bishop said the press has been the faithful ally of the pulpit in breaking down caste, in favoring humanitarian reforms, and in advocating the rights of all.

"When the prayer book was first compiled," he said, "journalism had scarcely begun its existence. Hence, no mention is made of editors in the enumerated list of persons needing the prayers of the church. No revision ought to be deemed complete which does not include them for no class required more intercession of the saints."

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It.

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

Miss Margret Merkley

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menacing female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margret Merkley, of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing-down pains, don't neglect yourself: try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THE MONEY QUESTION IS MANY SIDED.

On of the phrases is "How to avoid the embarrassing situation of being short of ready cash, though you may have money at home." If you have a check book and a banking account you are never caught in such a situation. Why not carry a checking account with this Corporation? Your money is safer in bank than anywhere else. A bank account teaches, helps and encourages you to save. Paying bills by check is safer, as the check becomes a receipt for the debt it pays. A check book is more convenient to carry than a wallet filled with legal tender. If your check book is lost the Bank will give you another; when you lose your wallet the story is different. To have a bank account and pay by check gives you better standing among business men and strengthens one's credit. Study this question—look at it as long as you will; the opening of a Bank account is desirable and advantageous, and we tender you our services and facilities. CALL TO SEE US.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING. MAY 18, 1906.

THE CHURCH of today is realizing that it has been brought face to face with serious conditions in civilized countries (erroneously termed Christain) in which the authenticity of the book of books is being questioned more and more as the years roll on. The problem as to the most practical procedure in order to bring about the conversion of the nations is gradually becoming secondary when it is seen that unbelief in the scriptures is often openly affirmed by professors in colleges as well as by some who are paid to preach the gospel. The Presbyterian General Assembly now in session in Greenville, S. C., seems to be aware of the fact that the church should awake to its duty of "contending earnestly for the faith once delivered to the saints." The retiring moderator, Rev. J. T. Plunkett, in his sermon yesterday, among other things said:

Our age on its spiritual side is an age of doubt. This doubting spirit is keenly intellectual, nobly artistic, splendidly humane. I confess that in my limited study in this field I have become confused. Prof. Edwin Bisale speaks for me, touching the whole subject. He says: "We have seen one scheme of the origin and structure of Genesis and its companion books give place in quick succession to another until it would seem the very limit of possible combinations has been reached," and we are left in confusion amid the wrangling of the schools. What can be the effect of certain kinds of criticism on the trustworthiness of Scripture? There can be but one answer. Its crdibility is gone. Trustworthiness cannot for one minute be associated in a sane mind with myth, legend, falsified history, deliberate forgery, partisan purposes. If these conclusions of the critics are true, then, instead of building on the impregnable rock of holy scripture, we are building upon the mists of mere myth and the fancies and falsehoods of fiction and forgery.

So it would seem that we are living in an age when attempts are being made to induce others (the heathen) to credit what many in so-called Christian nations refuse to believe themselves. There is much work still for the Christian Church at home.

STOPPING just short of branding the President directly and by name as a liar, Senator Bailey, in another scathing speech yesterday closed the controversy over his part in the rate bill negotitations, after presenting to the Senate the now-famous Chandler memorandum with a letter from the ex-Senator and extracts from his diary demonstrating conclusively that there had been nothing in any communication from Chandler to the President warranting the White House charge that Bailey was playing false. In additon to the direct testimony of Chandler the facts disclosed by the document he submitted and other facts cited by the Texas Senator made a strong chain of circumstantial evidence, proving that the President and his representatives showed no suspicion of Mr. Bailey's entire good faith for at least three weeks after the receipt of the Chandler memorandum informing the President the use the railroad Senators were trying to make of the Bailey amendments. Senator Bailey analyzed the facts and the newspaper publications relating to his alleged treachery in a way that carried directly home to the President himself the origination of the slanderous newspaper stories. The Senator did not directly charge the President with the offense, but he left no doubt on the mind of any who heard him that he believed the President to be the guilty party. Neither was there any doubt that he meant for the President the impassioned words with which he closed his speech: "When a man falsely accuses me, no matter where I may be, I will brand across his brow the word 'liar,' so that in after years all men may know him for what he is and all honest men may shun him." The country is indeed humilated when its chief executive places himself in such a position as to be so pilloried in the national Senate.

THE TRUTH of the saying that times change and people change with them is ever being made apparent. A dispatch from London published in yesterday's Gazette said that the disestablishment of the Church of England is imminent. There is consequently no little stir among ecclesiastics who see an ominous cloud rising. It is said that a bill to separate church and State would pass the House of Commons, but that it would be killed in the House of Lords, in which event the cabinet would resign and an election be ordered on that issue. It is believed that the House of Commons would be sustained by a popular vote. The union of church and State is a cherished English bulwark, and has been for many years. But nothing seems sacred to many in this day. Solomon says "Whoso breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him"—a figure of speech which is supposed to apply to inconoclasts, or those who attempt to abolish time-honored institutions. It may prove so with those who are bent upon divorcing church, and State in old England.

BUT few people understand or appreciate how the protective tariff has fostered trusts and combines, which control the price of the commodities they manufacture. Of the 287 principal combines and associations formed to advance and keep up prices, 168 are directly protected, by the tariff, although there are 206 trusts more or less protected with a capitalization of $5,571,616,168. For nearly ten years the present tariff law has protected these trusts and allowed them to plunder the people. The republican party is pledged to continue this protection to the trusts, although many republican voters are demanding tariff revision, but the present Congress, like former ones, refuses to allow any bill looking to reducing the tariff to be even considered. The only plan for those republicans who believe the tariff should be revised is to vote for democratic candidates for Congress and for the legislatures that will elect United States Senators.

THE Baltimore Sun was sixty-nine years old yesterday, the first number having appeared on the 17th day of May, 1837. The Sun was the pioneer one cent paper, and from its start it became popular. It gained at the beginning of its career the public confidence which it has enjoyed ever since. It has always been one of the best papers published, and as its years increase it grows better and more acceptable to its many readers.

SOLDERS on guard at the United States sub-treasury building in San Francisco say they had an exciting affray with would-be looters, who, the soldiers also say, they saw in the building. After being shot at the men, it is further said, mysteriously disappeared. Soldiers on guard at treasury buildings should be relieved from duty just as soon as they begin having pipe dreams.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, May 18.

The consideration of the case of Reed Smoot, of Utah, before the Senate committee on privileges and elections, has been postponed until Monday. At the last meeting of the committee it was agreed that a final seisn should be held today and that a vote should be had as to the character of the report to be made to the Senate. The extension of the railroad debate in the Senate and the latter's determination to meet each day at eleven o'clock is the avowed reason for the delay, it being pointed out that it is impossible to secure the undivided attention of members of the committee, under these circumstances. The belief is growing among the anti-Smoot Senators on the committee that the whole case will go over for decision at the next session of Congress.

Senator Tillman in charge of the railroad rate bill, says that so far as he knew, the only speech yet to come is one by Mr. Teller. The latter says that his remarks will be very brief. On the republican side it is announced to be the intention to make no reply to Mr. Rayner and to press the bill to a final vote today.

It is reported that within the next few week a speech will be delivered on the floor of the House intended to formally launch a boom for Speaker Cannon as the next President.

A Strange Case.

In furtherance of his inquiry into the case of Rev. Charles Stuart Bain, who is in the county jail at Waterloo, N. Y., on a charge of having set fire to the First Baptist Church of Waterloo, March 6 last, and who claims that at times he is under an influence against which he has no power of resistance, District Attorney Bodine yesterday was advised by the warden of the Illinois State prison, at Joliet, that one Charles S. Bain, alias C. W. Wilson, became a prisoner in that institution October, 1896, on a commitment from Kane county, charging embezzlement.

The prisoner, who was No. 5162, was paroled April 19, 1898, and was given his final discharge May 23, 1899. Mr. Bodine states that a photograph of Rev. Mr. Bain, which was sent to Joliet, has been returned, with the statement of the warden to the effect that it is undoubtedly a picture of the former Illinois prisoner.

The District Attorney also stated last night that he had received a letter saying Mr. Bain was tried at Converse, Ind., in 1903 by an ecclesiastical court on a charge of lying and conduct unbecoming a minister, and that he was dismissed from the Presbyterian ministry as a result of the trial.

Mr. Bodine has received many letters in connection with the case, some from former neighbors of Mr. Bain, who testify to the fact that at times the man undoubtedly was under some strange spell, and that while under the influence he acted out of all accord with his general mode of life.

The Vice President is stopping at the residence of Col. T. G. Bush, president of the Alabama Consolidated Coal and Iron Company, where he spent the morning until time to address the conference. An immense crowd of citizens heard his address which was delivered at the First Methodist Church, the largest church auditorium in the city. Mr. Fairbanks is accompanied to Birmingham by Mrs. Fairbanks.

The Reformed Episcopal Church Council in Philadelphia yesterday refused to seat three women delegates.

Options are being secured on a number of tracts of land on South Mountain, Washington county, Md., where copper in paying quantities and traces of gold have been found.

Bishop G. W. Clinton at the opening of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Conference in Carlisle Pa., yesterday said: "I admonish the ministers of this Conference to abstain from the use of tobacco in any form. I regard him incapable of self-control," The Bishop was sustained in his utterances by a large majority of those present, who loudly said "Amen."

Gutters Ran With Wine.

The gutters literally ran red with wine and other intoxicating liquors yesterday evening in the immediate vicinity of Henderson Castle, the picturesque home of former United States Senator John B. Henderson, of Missouri, on the heights overlooking Washington at Sixteenth street and Florida avenue. Hundreds of cobwebby bottles containing wines of rare old vintage, imported whiskies and brandies, cordials and other beverages galore, the entire contents of the Henderson wine cellar, valued at more than $1,000, were smashed and the contents allowed to flow through the nearby gutters to the sewer.

The destruction of the wine was accompanied by ceremonies and several interesting incidents. Those who wrought the destruction by permission of Mrs. Henderson, who stood smilingly by while it was accomplished, were men and women, members of the Independent Order of Rechabites, headed by High Chief Ruler Wayne W. Cordell.

A long line of Rechabites, members of John B. Henderson Tent and Onward Ladies' Tent, carrying at the head of the column an American flag, invaded the castle on the hill like knights of old, and were soon in full possession of the premises. The castle was brilliantly illuminated for the occason.

After the guests had assembled Mrs. Henderson, wearing the white and gold regalia of Onward Tent, of which she is a member, was presented to the assemblage by High Chief Ruler Cordell. She made a short address in which she said the contents of the cellar had been a burden upon her mind.

After the bottle-smashing Mrs. Henderson entertained her fellow-Rechabites, to the number of over a hundred, in the castle.

Smith trading as James C. Smith, agent. The bond was fixed at $750, and the case is from the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond. The case involves the shipment and alleged delay in the delivery of several carloads of scrap iron and steel from Richmond to Pittsburg, Pa.

Man and a Boy Perish.

News was received in Roanoke, Va., yesterday of a fire at Rock Creek, three miles from Allisonis, Pulaski county, which resulted in the death of Sherman Montgomery, 25 years old, and Lewis Gallimor, 12 years old. They worked at Shelton's saymill and occupied a small shanty near the mill, around which was stacked laths and considerable lumber and trash. A barrel of oil was near the shanty, and it is supposed that during the night the fire from the engine made its way through the trash and, reaching the oil, started the blaze that was so rapid and fierce that the man and boy sleeping in the shanty were overcome without warning. The engine, mill, sheds and truck were destroyed, and it was not until late in the morning that anyone discovered that there had been a fire. Montgomery leaves a wife and two small children.

Insane Patients Were Tortured.

At Williamsburg yesterday the legislative committee investigating the affairs of the Eastern Asylum called E. P. Proctor to the stand, at the request of Texas Clowes, for the purpose of corroborating the evidence put forward by him yesterday. Mr. Proctor was an attendant at the asylum at the time Dr. Williams held the position of interne.

He stated that Dr. Foster went through the wards once a month and burnt his patients with caustic. He had known as many as 20 burnt in one ward in one day. He said that the pain occasioned by this treatment was horrible. Mr. Proctor also told of electric treatment. A tapering needle was applied to a powerful battery, the other sponge of the battery being placed on the pit of the patient's stomach. The agony resulting was horrible. Straitjackets were used to a great extent when Mr. Proctor was attendant.

The witness stated that Dr. Foster was very quick to dismiss attendants who were cruel to the patients. Mr. Proctor knew nothing of Dr. Foster ducking patients. Dr. Williams used this method of discipline very often. He said that he had never seen drunkenness in the wards among the attendants.

P. T. Powell, jr., stated that after being burnt the patients were compelled to walk two miles in the morning and two miles in the afternoon. When they returned from these walks their clothing would be bloody from the irritation. Much of the burning was done as a punishment. Mr. Powell stated that Dr. Williams liked the electric treatment so much that he took the battery about with him on his daily rounds.

Col. Lawless, counsel for Dr. Foster, in speaking to a witness, referred to Mr. Clowes as "That creature." The matter has created a tremendous sensation. There was at one time a probability that there would be a personal difficulty. Colonel Lawless says that if anybody wants to seek a difficulty he can find it.

Peters Clowes, a son of Texas Clowes, who is said to have killed his man, has taken the matter up. Colonel Lawless has notified the committee that he will take proper steps to defend himself. Texas Clowes states that there will be no difficulty. He says the entire matter is the result of politics.

Say Tunnel is Sinking.

It came out yesterday at the meeting of the Rapid Transit Commission, under a charge made by Mayor McClellan, that the subway tunnel to Brooklyn had sunk two feet in some places, and that the roof had fallen so low that it would be impossible to run trains through the great bore.

Engineer Rice, of the commission, maintains that the sinking is of little consequence, and that a short delay only will be caused. But the mayor, quoting Engineer Jacobs, in charge of the Pennsylvania tunnel under the North river, maintains that the deformation of the tunnel, as it is called, has taken place over a stretch of 1,200 feet, and that two or three years will be required to make the repairs. It is even possible that it will be necessary to rebuild more than a quarter of a mile of the structure.

Three Hanged.

Three men are to pay the penalty of crime by hanging in Virginia today.

Charles Woodruff and Tom Jones killed Wiley Jones during a drunken row last Christmas and the verdict was murder in the first degree. No interference has been attempted and the execution will occur at Independence, Grayson county.

Governor Swanson announced yesterday that he would grant no farther respite in the case of Robert Booker, colored, who killed Charles Brown, another negro, and was sentenced to hang May 4. He was granted a respite until May 18. The Governor has notified the officers of Prince Edward that he does not feel justified in further interference and Booker will hang today.

Episcopal Council.

One Hundred and Eleventh Annual Session.

SECOND DAY—EVENING SESSION.

The council convened at 3:40 p. m. The election of diocesan committees was first in order. The old standing committee was re-elected. The executive committee of the diocesan missionary society was elected with the following new names inserted: Revs. W. C. Latane for the Rappahannock River convocation; J. W. Ware, for the Piedmont convocation; W. D. Smith for the Valley convocation and the Rev. Robt W. Forsyth D. D. for the Richmond convocation, The Revs W. B. Lee and E. B. Burwell were elected on the committee on Colonial Churches to take the places of the Rev. S. S. Hepburn, removed from the diocese, and of the Rev. C. J. Holt deceased. The other committees were elected.

The Rev. Jno H. Dickinson then presented the report of the committee on Parochial Reports of which the following synophsis is given: Baptisms 977; confimations—white 688, colored 14, total 702; communicants, 12,891. Sunday schools—Officers and teachers, 1,071; scholars, 10,179; Sunday school offerings, $7,454.60. Woman's Auxiliary—Members, 1,820; offerings, $5,687.94. Junior Auxiliary—Members, 901; offerings, $2,019.63. Brotherhood of St Andrew—Members, 402; offerings, $266.66. Total value of church property, $1,421,005. This includes churches and rectories. Total parochial contributions, $237,850.97.

The question of the acceptance of the report of the committee on the revision of the cannons was resumed at this point in accordance with the resolution of the Council. The discussion was continued on Judge Wallace's amendment to Canon VIII of the contingent fund for diocesan expenses which preserves the old method of raising this fund on the basis of one dollar from each communicant. This amendment was carried after the ayes and noes were called by an overwhelming vote of the laity in its favor.

The consideration of other canons continued until the hour of adjournment when the committee rose to resume its duties on the morrow.

The meeting held at 8 o'clock last night was in the interest of diocesan missions. The bishop presided and addresses were made by the Rev. Messrs. Watara, Sakakihara of Japan and John C. Meem of Brazil.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.

Divine service was held at 9:15 a. m. It was in charge of the rector of the church assisted by the Rev. John J. Gravatt. There was no sermon. The council then assembled for business, when Mr. H. C. Marchant presented the report on clerical support. It contained the following interesting statistics: Number of churches reporting 64, number paying salaries in full and having rectories 43, paying salaries but having no rectories 12, churches reporting deficit in salary 1, number reporting excess in salary 8. Congratulations were extended the diocese on this excellent showing.

The Rev. Angus Crawford D. D., presented an interesting report from the committee on the increase of the ministry pointing out the need of more young men presenting themselves and indicating some of the troubles incident to bringing the matter before the people. The committee recommended at least one service in the year on this subject.

Rev. J. J. Clopton presented the report of the Widows and Orphans' Fund.

Mr. R. W. Hilleary, of Warrenton, presented an invitation to the council to meet next May at St. James' Church, Warrenton. This was unanimously adopted.

Rev. J. G. Downman offered the report of the special committee on assistance in supporting the rector of the church in Blacksburg, as so many students from the bounds of the diocese of Virginia attend the Virginia Polytechnic Institute which is situated within the limits of the diocese of Southern Virginia. The committee recommended the appointment of a special committee to take the matter in hand.

There was a substitute offered for this by the Rev. E. L. Goodwin that the Diocesan Missionary Society be empowered to make an apportionment for this object. As unanimous consent is required for this, and not being given, the matter went over.

The committee then went into committee of the whole with Judge J. M. White in the chair so as to resume the consideration of the report of the committee on the revision of the canons. There was much dicussions on section 3 of canon XV with reference to the qualifications of vestrymen. The old canon carried on to the body of new canons is retained which allows others than communicants to be elected as vestrymen. The Rev. H. B. Lee offered an amendment requiring that baptism only be the religious qualification for a person to be eligible for election to a vestry, while Professor Massie brought in a substitute for this that only communicants be eligible for election to this office. After a long and interesting discussion the vote was taken on Prof. Massie's amendment requiring a person to be a communicant before he can be eligible for election as vestryman. This was lost by a vote by ayes and noes, clergy, ayes 25, noes 30; laity, ayes 6, noes 28. The amendment was accordingly lost. A rising vote was taken on the Rev. H. B. Lee's amendment making baptism the requirement for eligibility to election on a vestry and this amendment was carried by a large majority.

The rest of the revised canons were adopted by the committee of the whole with slight verbal changes, and the committee rose when the council resumed its proceedings and accepted the report of the committee on the canons as amended by the committee of the whole. The thanks of the council were accorded to the committee for their arduous, important and successful work.

The revised canons as now adopted are a great improvement in logical order, arrangement, and many things pertaining to their contents over the old canons a notable advancement in the legislation of the diocese.

The council then adjourned to meet at 3 p. m.

The service tonight will be for the Daughters of the King, an organization of ladies in the Episcopal Church corresponding to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the same church. The services will be conducted by the rector, Rev. P. P. Phillips, with addresses by Archdeacons Moncure and Tyler.

The greater part of the work of the council is now done and most of the delegates will leave for their homes this evening and tonight.

Dewolf, 18 years old, of Cambridge, fired a shot at Lillian Parks, otherwise known as Lillian Thorgood, aged 17, of Allston, at 12:30 this morning on the street in Cambridgeport. The young man had been paying attention to the girl for some time. Dewolf and Miss Parks attended a dance in the new bank building in Central Square last night. Green, first vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, over his personal signature: "The recent developments at the hearing in progress before the Interstate Commerce Commission in this city in regard to the ownership of stocks in coal companies located on its lines, the officers and employees of the company, and the acceptance of gratuities by its employees, were a surprise to the management, and while it is not believed that these have cause injustice to the public or the company, the facts with respect thereto will be thoroughly investigated and no owners or practice calculated in any manner to affect the full and impartial discharge of the duty owed by the company and its employes to the public, will be tolerated."

Burned to Death.

London, May 18.—Several persons were burned to death in a fire at Stratford, near London, at six o'clock this morning. The small house was occupied by a family of seven named Hennell, and a family of eight, named Fraser. All the members of the Fraser family escaped, but before the firemen could rescue the Hennells the father, mother, three daughters, aged five, eight, and ten years, and the grandmother were dead. A twelve year old son was the only member of the family saved. The fire burned with the greatest rapidity, beating back desperate attempts of the firemen to enter the house. The rescue of the son was conducted with the greatest heroism. A fireman rushed into the burning sturcture and dashed up a flight of stairs, grabbed the boy and dropped him from a window. The fireman then jumped himself.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c.

Sensational Evidence.

Philadelphia, May 10.—Again this morning did the search-light of investigation directed by the Interstate Commerce Commission probe deep into the private deals of the railroad superintendents who are heavy stockholders in coal mining companies.

Beyond the fact of learning that C. J. Cleaves, superintendent of the Cambria & Clearfield Railroad, was the holder of 250 shares in a mining firm, Mr. Glasgow, counsel for the commission, did little else with the first witness to take the stand this morning.

When F. L. Sheppard, General Superintendent of the United Railways of New Jersey, was summoned, testimony of a more sensational nature was adduced. He said he bought some stock which he held, but could not tell how he obtained the other. He acknowleged that he had received money from a coke company. Mr. Sheppard's place was taken by Frank Wigton, President of the Morrisdale Coal Company, who made such sensational disclosures yesterday on rebates.

R. B. Freeman, superintendent of the Tyrone Division, was later put on the stand. He said he had 80 shares in the Shannon Mining Company" and receive money from the operators, usually at the holiday season.

New York, May 19.—After deliberating more than twelve hours the jury which tried Lewis G. Tewksbury on the charge of stealing $10,000 worth of bonds from his wife, reported early this morning that they could not agree and were discharged. Murderer Hanged

Butte, Mont., May 18.—Mills Fuller was hanged at five o'clock this morning in the county jail yard for the murder of Henry J. Gallahan, October 24, 1904. Fuller was 66 years old and Gallahan was 62. Both were old placer miners and hermits and enmity existed between the two for years, due to the fact that Gallahan accused Fuller of murdering another old miner some years ago. Fuller claimed to be a relative of Chief Justice Fuller. He had relatives in Ohio where he deserted his family during the civil war. Fuller deserted from the army and went to Texas where he married again. He claimed he killed a man there and fled. Fuller was a typical "bad man of the West," and always was ready with gun or knife.

Berlin, May 18.—A man named Firmsun, a resident of the town of Mulhausen was arrested for sneezing violently on the street and charged with disturbing the public peace. The district court acquitted the man, but the police have appealed the case to the court of appeals in an attempt to establish the supremacy of the police.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 18. 11 a. m.—About the only stock in which there was any special trading worth mentioning was Pennsylvania, which continued under pressure, similar to that in evidence since the sale of the last security issue of the company on Tuesday. Taken altogether, the market was heavy and listless, with prices ranging one to two points below yesterday.

Rebates Allowed.

That the Pennsylvania Railroad Company gave rebates as recently as 1903 was the charge made in Philadelphia yesterday by Frank B. Wigton, head of the Morrisdale Coal Company, before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Wigton's statement caused something of a sensation because of the fact that while the commission was in session in Baltimore Vice President Thayer, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, appeared before the body and stated that the company had made no allowances or concession since 1899. Mr. Wigton was the last witness called yesterday. He gave a detailed statement of the conditions in the soft-coal region and accused the Pennsylvania Railroad Company of discrimination in the allotment of coal cars, citing cases to substantiate his charges.

General Superintendent of Transportation Trump testified that it was the company's policy to discourage the use of individual cars, but it was intimated by counsel for the commission that the order was aimed particularly at the small operator.

Mr. Trump admitted holding coal-company stock.

Second Vice-President Charles E. Pugh explained that the company refrained from putting in sidings, that the production of coal is ample for the demand and said he owned coal securities.

R. L. O'Donnell, general superintendent of the Buffalo and Allegheny Valley Railroad, said he shared in the free stock issue of the Latrobe-Connellsville Company. He was in charge of the distribution of cars.

The ferry steamer Callahan, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, which arrived in Washington at 6:30 yesterday morning made a quick trip. Capt. Clampitt brought the new vessel to Washington, breaking the record for such craft between Wilmington and Washington, making an average of more than thirteen knots an hour. The steamer is 195 feet over all, and will carry 990 tons. She was built in record breaking time, the company requiring only five months to complete her. She was launched at Wilmington March 24. The Callahan will arrive here late this evening from Washington and will take the place of the Woodbury on the ferry route, leaving here at 6 a. m. tomorrow. The Woodbury will in the meantime undergo some minor repairs. On the 27th instant both steamers will be put on the line, when two trips an hour will be made between Alexandria and Washington.

Death of an Old Resident.

Mr. Edward Hughes, an old, well-known and respected resident, died at his home, southwest corner of Duke and Payne streets, at an early hour this morning. The deceased had been in feeble health for some time. He leaves a widow. Mr. Hughes was born in Ireland, but came to this country in early life, taking up his residence in Philadelphia. During the civil war he was a member of one of the Pennsylvania regiments. At the close of hostilities he became a resident of Alexandria and had since lived here. For nearly forty years he conducted the Alexandria House, opposite the postoffice. Mr. Hughes at one time represented the Fourth ward in the City Council. He was also Chief Engineer of the Fire Department for some time. He was a quiet and good citizen and was popular with all who knew him. The deceased was 75 years old

Mayflies.

An abundance of mayflies are now to be seen especially around the river front. Sides of houses, telephone posts, fences and other places abounded with them this morning. At night they swarm about electric lights. They enjoy but a brief existence Mayflies afford a feast for fish and birds, and are regarded as good bait by anglers. Their origin has ever been a mystery. Some positively affirm that they evolve from fish offal, but that has never been satisfactorily demoustrated. Others believe they emanate in some manner from the river, and some watermen affirm that they have seen them rise in swarms from the surface about dusk.

"Sharps and Flats."

After an interval of nine years, when "Pinafore" was first produced, "Sharps and Flats" will again present this tuneful opera as a testimonial. The cast will be as follows: Sir Joseph Porter, Mr. Geo. H. Evans; Captain Corcoran, Mr. Wm. Clabaugh; Ralph Rackstraw, Mr. M. Harry Stevens; Dick Deadeye, Mr. C. W. Moore; Boatswain, Mr. William Bryant; Josephine, Mrs. Robt. Downham; Little Buttercup, Miss Edna Scott Smith; Cousin Hebe, Mrs. Raymond Hulfish. The characters will be supported by a large and well drilled chorus under the direction of Mrs. M. W. O'Brien.

Auction Sale Tomorrow.

Capt. R. F. Knox, auctioneer, will, for Commissioners of Sale Francis L. Smith, Samuel G. Brent and E. B. Taylor, offer at public sale at ten o'clock tomorrow morning in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall, seventeen desirable pieces of property in different sections of the city. Some of the real estate is situated on the river front. The sale will be made under a decree of the Corporation Court of Alexandria in the case of Mary C. S. Burch vs. Ella Rose Smoot and others.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Benjamin Scrivener, arrested by Officers Knight and Nicholson charged with contempt of court, was fined $2.50.

Sallie Porter, arrested by Officers Knight and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct was fined $5.

William Bass and Jean Dawson, arrested by Officers Beach and Lyles charged with gambling, were fined $2 each.

Fire Alarms.

The alarm of fire about 8 o'clock this morning was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the Alexandria House, southeast corner of Prince and St. Asaph streets. Some clothing was destroyed, but the building escaped serious injury.

The alarm between 11 and 12 o'clock was also caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove. The accident occurred on Prince street, between Lee and Union. The damage was slight.

The Doctors.

The annual meeting of the Medical Society of Northern Virginia was held in Serepta Hall in this city yesterday, with thirty one members present. Considerable routine business was transacted and a number of papers were read, after which these officers were elected; President, Dr. R. M. Slaughter, of Seminary Hill; vice president, Dr. T. C. Quick, of Falls Church; and Dr. D. F. Dutuor, of Washington, secretary, and Dr. A. A. Rittenour, of Alexandria, treasurer.

Birthday Party.

Miss Mary Chauncey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chauncey, celebrated her 18th birthday last night at her home on Duke street, between Columbus and Alfred. A number of her young friends attended and a very delightful evening was spent by all present. Refreshments and music were features of the occasion. Miss Chauncey received numerous presents from her friends.

The Elks' Bazar.

The Elks' Bazar again afforded lively and pleasant scenes at and about Armory Hall last night. A large crowd was in attendance and all spent a delightful evening. Fire balloons ascended during the early part of the night. Mr. Thomas Kelly held the lucky number (162) which drew the hundred-dollar bond.

In accordance with the announcement in the Gazette yesterday a free admission ticket to Luna Park was presented to each person at the entrance to the armory, and this will continue each night until three thousand of such tickets have been distributed. Nearly one thousand were given out last night, showing that the public appreciates such a liberal proposition. Interest in the automobile and motor boat contests has not abated and the awarding of a $100 government bond each night attracts considerable attention. Tomorrow night the members of Columbia, Reliance and Relief fire companies will attend the bazaar in uniform.

Tomorrow from 1 to 5 o'clock an entertainment will be given the school children. Fishing ponds, grab bags and other amusements will be furnished and a large attendance is earnestly requested. An admission fee of 5 cents will be charged. The ladies in charge of the Bazar desire to make this entertainment a feature of the fair, and every effort will be made to give the children a pleasant afternoon.

Judge Louis C. Barley, chairman of the Elks' Bazar committee, has received the following letter, which explains itself:

Alexandria, Va., May 16, 1906.

Mr. Louis C. Barley, Chairman, Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, B. P. O. E., Alexandria, Va.:

Dear Sir—We hereby agree to furnish and erect Loktile complete in any one bathroom that may be selected by you, said bathroom not to comprise more than one hundred square feet. Yours very truly,

THE AMERICAN LOKTILE COMPANY,
Per Andrew D. Porter, President.

A sample of the style of tiling is on exhibition at the flower booth. Sealed proposals will be received by Mrs. Jones until the close of the fair. The contract will go the highest bidder.

Requested to Resign.

Chief Webster of the police force this morning received the following from the Board of Police Commissioners:

Alexandria, Va., May 17, 1906.

Chief Jas. F. Webster:

Dear Sir—At a meeting of the Police Board held last night the following resolution was adopted, and I was instructed to send you a copy of the same.

Resolved, It having developed by the recent investigation of the police force that it is in a disorganized and deplorable condition, we find it necessary to bring about an improvement in the force, and to make a number of changes; the board therefore requests the resignation of Capt. James Webster as chief to take effect June 1, 1906. ZORA HILL, Secretary.

It was understood by the chief and his friends that it was the intention of the board to make Chief Webster desk sergeant, he being deemed by them too far advanced in life to perform active police duty. The members, however, have not announced publicly what they purpose to do. Chief Webster has been constable and Chief of Police of this city for nearly forty years, and since the organization of the force (1870) has occupied the position he now holds. Throughout his long term of service he has proven trustworthy and faithful.

[Since the above was written it is understood that Chief Webster has under consideration the advisability of tendering his resignation, and that the board will, in all probability, appoint him desk sergeant.]

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Edward L. Daingerfield, of this city, will take place at 5 o'clock this evening from her summer residence, "Malvern," in Fairfax county, where she died on Wednesday morning last. The services will be conducted by Rev. P. F. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Church, assisted by Rev. Dr S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. The pallbearers will be Dr. C. H. Elliott, of Philadelphia; Mr. Key Daingerfield, of Baltimore; Mr. W. D. Peachy, of Washington; Mr. T. D. Addison, of Fairfax, and Dr. W. M. Smith and Messrs. W. F. Lambert, W. F. Brookes and Hubert Snowden, of this city. The interment will be in the family lot in the Presbyterian cemetery.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 18.

SENATE

When the railway rate bill was taken up in the Senate at 11 o'clock this morning, Mr. Hale insisted that the chair strictly enforce the rule limiting debate. "The Senate and the country is becoming tired of this bill," he declared, "and I hope that early today we may reach that point where proposed amendments are no longer in order."

He called attention to a fact that had been overlooked that under the existing agreement general debate was in order when the bill was being put upon its third reading.

Mr. Hale contended that the limitation upon debate had been pretty much a failure and that as during the general debate in committee of the whole, the time has been consumed by half a dozen Senators.

He said he thought the Senate was entitled to a rest.

Senator Long said this afternoon that if the words "in its judgment" were stricken out from the provision of the railroad rate bill that allows the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix what in its judgment is a just and reasonable rate such action would destroy the Allison compromise and the fight would again be in the open.

The Senate this afternoon struck out the words "in its judgment," in the provision of the rate bill, which authorizes the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix just and reasonable rates.

The vote was 50 to 24. This upsets one of the features of the "Allison compromise."

When the Senate reached the court review amendment of the "Allison Compromise," it was adopted without debate or division.

The remaining sections of the Allison compromise were also adopted, including the provision against injunctions without due notice and hearing.

Shortly after the adoption of the Allison amendments this afternoon Senator Tillman sent to the desk and had the clerk read a newspaper account of the hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission in Philadelphia yesterday. He interrupted the reading to say that he only wanted it to go into the record to show "how the whole Pennsylvania system from Cassatt down is permeated with rottenness, with bribery and all that sort of thing."

At 1:45 all amendments having been agreed to, the railroad bill was ordered engrossed and read a third time in the Senate.

The question was put "Shall the bill pass."

Senator Bailey thereupon rose to make his speech.

He started by saying that he was firmly of the belief that the President would again change his mind before this controversy was over, and that if the Speaker of the House of Representatives would nominate a man on the conference committee who had the courage of his convictions and who would not waver upon the question of constitutional review, the President would abandon the Allison amendment and go back again to the Long amendment, the place that he started from.

Mr. Rainer spoke with irony and satire to the heart of the subject. He said that Addison had once made the remark that a woman who deliberates is lost, and that while there was no chance of anybody ever losing the President there was no telling of within the next few days "some new Chandler to fortune and to fame unknown, might not get possession of the President and tide him over the breakwater of the Allison amendment back to his original terminus." Mr. Rayner said that he would not pretend to make any assault upon the President or pretend to charge him with a selfish or dishonest purpose, but that the processes of reasoning through which he reached a a conclusion were so changeable that it was impossible to follow him.

Mr. Rayner, turning to the friend of the bill, concluded: "In one of the paragraph you have animated the Commission with life; in the next paragraph, with the assistance of the President, you have strangled it and sentenced it to die. In one section, you have conferred upon it the rate making power, and in the very next section, you have winged the shaft that quivers in its heart.

Clamoring for a Constitution.

St. Petersburg, May 18.—The real temper of the great masses of the Russian people, as they are able to voice their sentiments through their chosen representatives in the Douma, is beginning to manifest itself. Today witnessed the first real assertion of the views of the workingmen, and the statement of their position by the workingmen's deputies created a sensation which surpasses anything that has startled the members. A bold demand for the immediate establishment of a constitutional government and the convocation of a popular assembly to draw such constitution before anything else is attempted was made by the workingmen's deputies, in the name of the masses of their constituents. The voicing of such sentiments, in view of the efforts which have been made by the leaders of the Douma to prevent the radicals from writing their views into the reply, created a great sensation.

In bold speeches the radical deputies made a vigorous attack on the draft of the reply which has been presented to the Douma for consideration, declaring that the document, bold as it seems in comparison to anything that has ever been seen in Russia, is not strong enough to meet the situation.

Without mincing words, the workingmen declared that the Douma ought to send a reply to the Czar protesting against the whole tenor of the address from the throne, and telling the Czar that the people demand the summoning of a popular assembly for establishing a constitution. This must be done before anything else is undertaken. The proposals put forward by the workingmen's delegates are regarded as a decided challenge to the Czar and evidently were intended as such. The conservatism made manifested by deputies during the previous debate on the reply had disgusted the radical deputies, who represent a following which demands real changes in the Russian regime. When the debate was resumed today, on the face of the reply conserning the legislative functions of the Douma, the workingmen delayed no longer, but at once pushed their orators forward to advocate their views which created such a stir in the assembly.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated at 3 o'clock this morning, says: Sitting until after 2 o'clock this morning, the lower house of the national parliament set its seal upon its first great work—the adoption of the address in reply to Emperor Nicholas's speech from the throne at the Winter Palace, and setting forth the aims and aspirations of Russia's millions. Despite attacks both from the right and from the left, the leaders of the constitutional democratic party held their followers together to the last, and the address was adopted substantially in the form in which it was proposed by the commission. The amendments adopted Wednesday and Thursday affect important details, but do not change the general tenor of the document, which, extreme as it may be in the eyes of the autocracy, falls far short of the expectations of the radicals.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
